DESERT SERIES

The Desert collection is a responsible line of products made of recycled PET yarn from post-consumer plastic bottles combined with a clean and functional steel frame for the Lounge Chair and Stool. The PET yarn process begins with post-consumer plastic bottles being collected, sorted and segregated before being processed into durable yarn that resembles a thick woollen thread. Then the PET yarn is hand-woven into seats and cushion covers. The Desert collection is suitable for both indoor and outdoor use, and after years of good use, the products are easy to disassemble for recycling.

PRODUCTS WOVEN OUT OF RECYCLED PLASTIC BOTTLES

We are getting used to seeing images of plastic washing up on shores and turning into mountains of trash everywhere in the daily news. With a problem this big, it calls for clever solutions. Because plastic can be more than waste: With the help of specialized technology, we have created a series of textiles made entirely from used plastic bottles that we use for our Desert Chair. This way, you get incredibly durable textiles while helping clean up the oceans. Seats, rugs, cushions, and mats made from plastic may not initially sound like you get textiles with a soft, lovely touch and feel. But the Desert Chair won't leave you longing for virgin wool. Not only is it practical, easily cleaned, and suitable for outdoor use, it also feels just as lovely as any other rug that comes your way. Turning plastic bottles into PET-yarn, from which you can weave, has five steps: Collecting bottles, crushing bottles and compressing them into compact entities, converting the compressed bottles into small chips, processing the chips in carding machines, and finally, you have a material you can spin into yarns.
